

Nāvigātiō Sānctī Brendānī Abbātis: The Voyage of St. Brendan: a Latin Reader in Two Levels contains the full, original Latin text of the Nāvigātiō Sānctī Brendānī Abbātis, which is a story about an Irish monk who sails the Atlantic looking for the Promised Land of the Saints.

This is a Latin reader intended for beginning and intermediate students, so every page of Latin text has a full glossary on the facing page. The book also includes a much simpler version of the text that students can read before attempting the original text. Extensive footnotes explaining any difficult grammar or concepts are included with the original Latin text. The text uses classical spellings with macrons.
